

4th Grade Summer Reading Assignment

I hope that each of you are enjoying your summer.

The Students should read and complete " Tales of a 4th grade Nothing."

The students are tasked to complete a project called a diorama (Shoebox project.)

What is a project in a shoe box called?

A shoebox diorama is a way for your students to transform an everyday object into an amazing still life that captures the essence of a lesson or topic they are studying.

The students will complete a shoebox diorama on Tales of a 4th grade Nothing.- they are to capture one of the chapters (scene) in the novel and create the scene in the diorama.

The shoebox should have some important items on it:

Student Name:

Date:

Title:

Author:

Setting:

Characters:

This project is due on Wednesday, September 6, 2023

Scholars will be expected to discuss the scene that is captured in their diorama and the significance of that scene.

They will present the diorama to the class and answer questions.

Note - The Students can have note cards to use while presenting.

Please see the link below for some ideas for the diorama.
